

Dear Members,

Fall is almost here, which means cooler breezes, fresh starts, and plenty of chances to show up for one another. At Women Owned Law, we know that community thrives when every voice has a seat at the table (and yes, we promise the table isn't reserved just for the loudest talkers).

This September, our event calendar is brimming with opportunities to celebrate, connect, and amplify the unique perspectives that make our network so powerful. Take a peek:

B2B Meeting (Sept 4, National)

Think of it as a mastermind for your business. A chance to share your story, hear others', and spark partnerships that reflect the breadth of our community.

Chelsea Art Gallery Tour (Sept 16, NY Metro)

Lawyers appreciating art? Absolutely. We're stepping out of the office and into creative spaces where conversation flows as easily as inspiration. Bring your curiosity—and maybe a friend who swears they “don't get modern art.”

Annual Meeting of the Members (Sept 18, National)

Our annual gathering where every member's voice matters. Think about community building, and a reminder that your voice and your vision shape the future of WOL.

Boston Region Launch (Sept 18, Boston)

Calling all Bostonians (and honorary Bostonians). This launch is about planting new roots, celebrating regional diversity, and making sure no one practices law—or builds business—alone.

Why Show Up?

Because inclusion isn't just an idea, it's an action. By joining these events, you're not only investing in your own growth, but also helping build a legal community that reflects the diversity of the world we serve.

Whether you're sharing your expertise, learning from someone else's lived experience, or just laughing over a shared moment—you belong here.

So, let's kick off the season with curiosity, connection, and courage. After all, law is stronger (and a lot more fun) when we're all in the room.

See you soon,

Your DEI Committee at Women Owned Law
